

Initial information for war refugees from Ukraine

Version: 08.03.2022

If there is the possibility of self-organized accommodation (relatives, friends, acquaintances) and no financial or other official help is required (for the time being), a report to the Dachau Immigration Office is not necessary until day 90 after entering Germany. However, a self-report would be a great help, as it allows us to send legal changes, offers of help or other information directly to you: www.landratsamt-dachau.de/Selbstmeldung-Ukraine

If only an accommodation is needed, no further financial or official help, please register yourself as well (www.landratsamt-dachau.de/Selbstmeldung-Ukraine). If you need our help finding an accommodation please contact us ebi@Lra-dah.bayern.de. Should you need accommodation immediately outside of the opening hours of the district office, please contact the anchor center in Munich, which is open around the clock (see address on the back).

It is possible to start work immediately and without restrictions after applying for a residence permit. The immigration authorities will issue you the appropriate work permit. The statutory minimum wage in Germany is currently € 9.82; but higher standard wages may apply.

If financial or other help is needed, please contact the district office in Dachau, department for asylum affairs (see contact information on the back).

In order to receive aid payments easily, a local bank account is important. Accounts can be opened at any local Sparkasse branch; ideally at the place of accommodation. For this purpose, the registration certificate (available from the respective municipality), identity paper (passport, if necessary fictional certificate from the immigration office) are required.

Busse und S-Bahnen can be used free of charge with an Ukrainian passport.

If you are acutely ill or have an accident, please call 112.
